"A GOOD LIAR."

Powers Comedy Cartoon Split Reel—Released August 4.

By Pat Sullivan.

Two pickaninnies follow an old veteran, and ask him how he won his medal. He tells them that back in '61 when he was a young private on sentry duty, the enemy attacked them in an aeroplane. He managed to overcome them, and then discovered a huge bologna sausage, which was the enemy's entire food supply. He reported his find to headquarters, saying that he was sending the food supply by wireless. It duly arrived at the tent of Gen. Delivery, from Private House. He was presented with the medal for this achievement. The boys say that he deserves ten, and give him one with "Liar" on it. He is disgusted and tells them they don't know a real liar when they see one.
